RUSTIC

Rustic effect is characterized by a classic, old world design. This effect features influence from the nature along with a distressed, rugged finish. Such tiles can be used in a variety of home applications in order to create or complement a rustic, classical design style. One of the primary features that characterizes this style of tile is its imperfection and its high textured surface that adds depth and character to it.

METALLIC

Metallic effect on tiles produces the iridescent and contemporary appearance of this fascinating material in all its variations, to give life to environments that are both elegant and surprising. Thanks to its metallised reflecting properties, this effect gives a beautiful shimmer when hit by light which adds personality to the tiles making the space look precious and rich in character. It has been a firm favourite in recent years for people looking for that modern, industrial look.

The background of the entire page is a dense, repeating pattern of terrazzo tiles. The pattern consists of small, irregular chips of various colors (white, light gray, dark gray, brown, and black) embedded in a light gray matrix. The chips are scattered throughout, creating a speckled, mosaic-like effect.

TERRAZZO

Terrazzo is a composite material which is precast with chips of marble, quartz, granite, glass and such other materials along with a binder in its originality. We have recreated that same effect which combines the luxurious feel of terrazzo fused with the aesthetics of designer tiles. The unique patterns and intricate designs will make anyone take a second look at the tiles. Terrazzo tile flooring will be just the right option to jazz up your décor while keeping it classy.
